

Webindia123 2 days ago

Prasad Group introduces 3D movie cameras for film producers

Group, a pioneer in post production services has launched the latest 3D movie cameras for film producers. The Group, founded by filmmaker L V Prasad has tied up with Toronto-based 3D Camera Company (3DCC) to acquire four specialized stereoscopic cameras... Full Article at Webindia123

Add New Comment

DISQUS

Type your comment here.

Post as ...

Showing 0 comments

Sort by Subscribe by email Subscribe by RSS

Related Articles

Brainstorming – bogus or brilliant?

9 hours ago

In fact, to find big solutions to big problems, business and government leaders need to foster more of this kind of creativity, experts say. “You’re looking for any kind of new possibility,” says Bob Presner, president of Toronto-based Beyond the Box... Full Article at Globe and Mail

Cinram posts profit while losing Warner biz

1 month ago

TORONTO -- Canadian replicator Cinram International Income Fund, a key industry barometer for DVD and Blu-Ray sales, swung to a first quarter profit of $7.9 million, against a year-earlier $17.6 million loss. Toronto-based Cinram recorded flat revenue o Full Article at Hollywood Reporter

Can Biochar Help Save the World?

1 month ago

At the new website, <http://www.newcarboneconomy.info>, you can find out about biochar and sign the petition. The Huntsville Project is asking global leaders to support this important new clean technology. On June 25. the G8 will meet in Huntsville Ontario. Full Article at Huffington Post

James Cameron: The 'Avatar' sequel will dive into the oceans of Pandora

1 month ago

They want to have that immersive, transportive experience. “2001: A Space Odyssey” played for three years at the Loews cinema in Toronto. I remember that. It just kept playing.